

BAF TRAINING COURSE

June 2017

Benefits Update 2017

Thursday 29th June (10.00am - 1.00pm)

This half-day course is aimed at people who give advice on benefits to clients and who want an update on the wide ranging, 2017 benefit changes. A good knowledge of current benefits is required.

Course level: Intermediate

Course content

- Update on the main changes to benefits from April 2017 – including changes to benefits for:
 - People who are unfit for work
 - People with children
 - Young people
 - Bereaved people
- Overview of other future benefit changes
- Likely impact of the benefit changes on clients and support organisations

NB This course will cover this year's changes to Universal Credit but will not provide full training on UC.

Trainers: Elliott Stephenson (Aragon Housing Association) and Len Simkins (Infotrain)

Course Fees	BAF members		Non-BAF members
	Standard rate	Lower rate	Standard rate	Lower rate
Half-day course	£30	£15	£60	£30

The lower rate fees are for small organisations with no paid staff

The course will be held at: Bunyan Meeting, Mill Street, Bedford MK40 3EU

A booking form is attached